

PASADENA CULTURE

PERFORMANCE

INDELIBLE INK

Indelible Ink is unlike any other show you will find in Pasadena! The performers, the music, the movement and the mélange of mediums coalesce into an entertaining and intelligent show performed in the round at POP Champagne and Dessert Bar. While your soul is indelibly marked by the performance artists whose original work is courageous, engaging and thought-provoking, your taste buds can enjoy the delightful cuisine and beverages of POP Champagne Bar. Indelible Ink is a smart and popular dinner show that encourages audience participation – heckling included. Performers' backgrounds and viewpoints represent the wonderful diversity available in Southern California.

Indelible Ink rejoices in literature, art and the light it brings.

Created and hosted by accomplished poet and performer Monica Lee Copeland, Indelible Ink just concluded its fifth performance. Known for her interactive style and theater-house vocal range, she is a maverick at outdoor venues, including the Opening of Chicago's Museum of Contemporary Art where thousands of art enthusiasts enjoyed her performance.

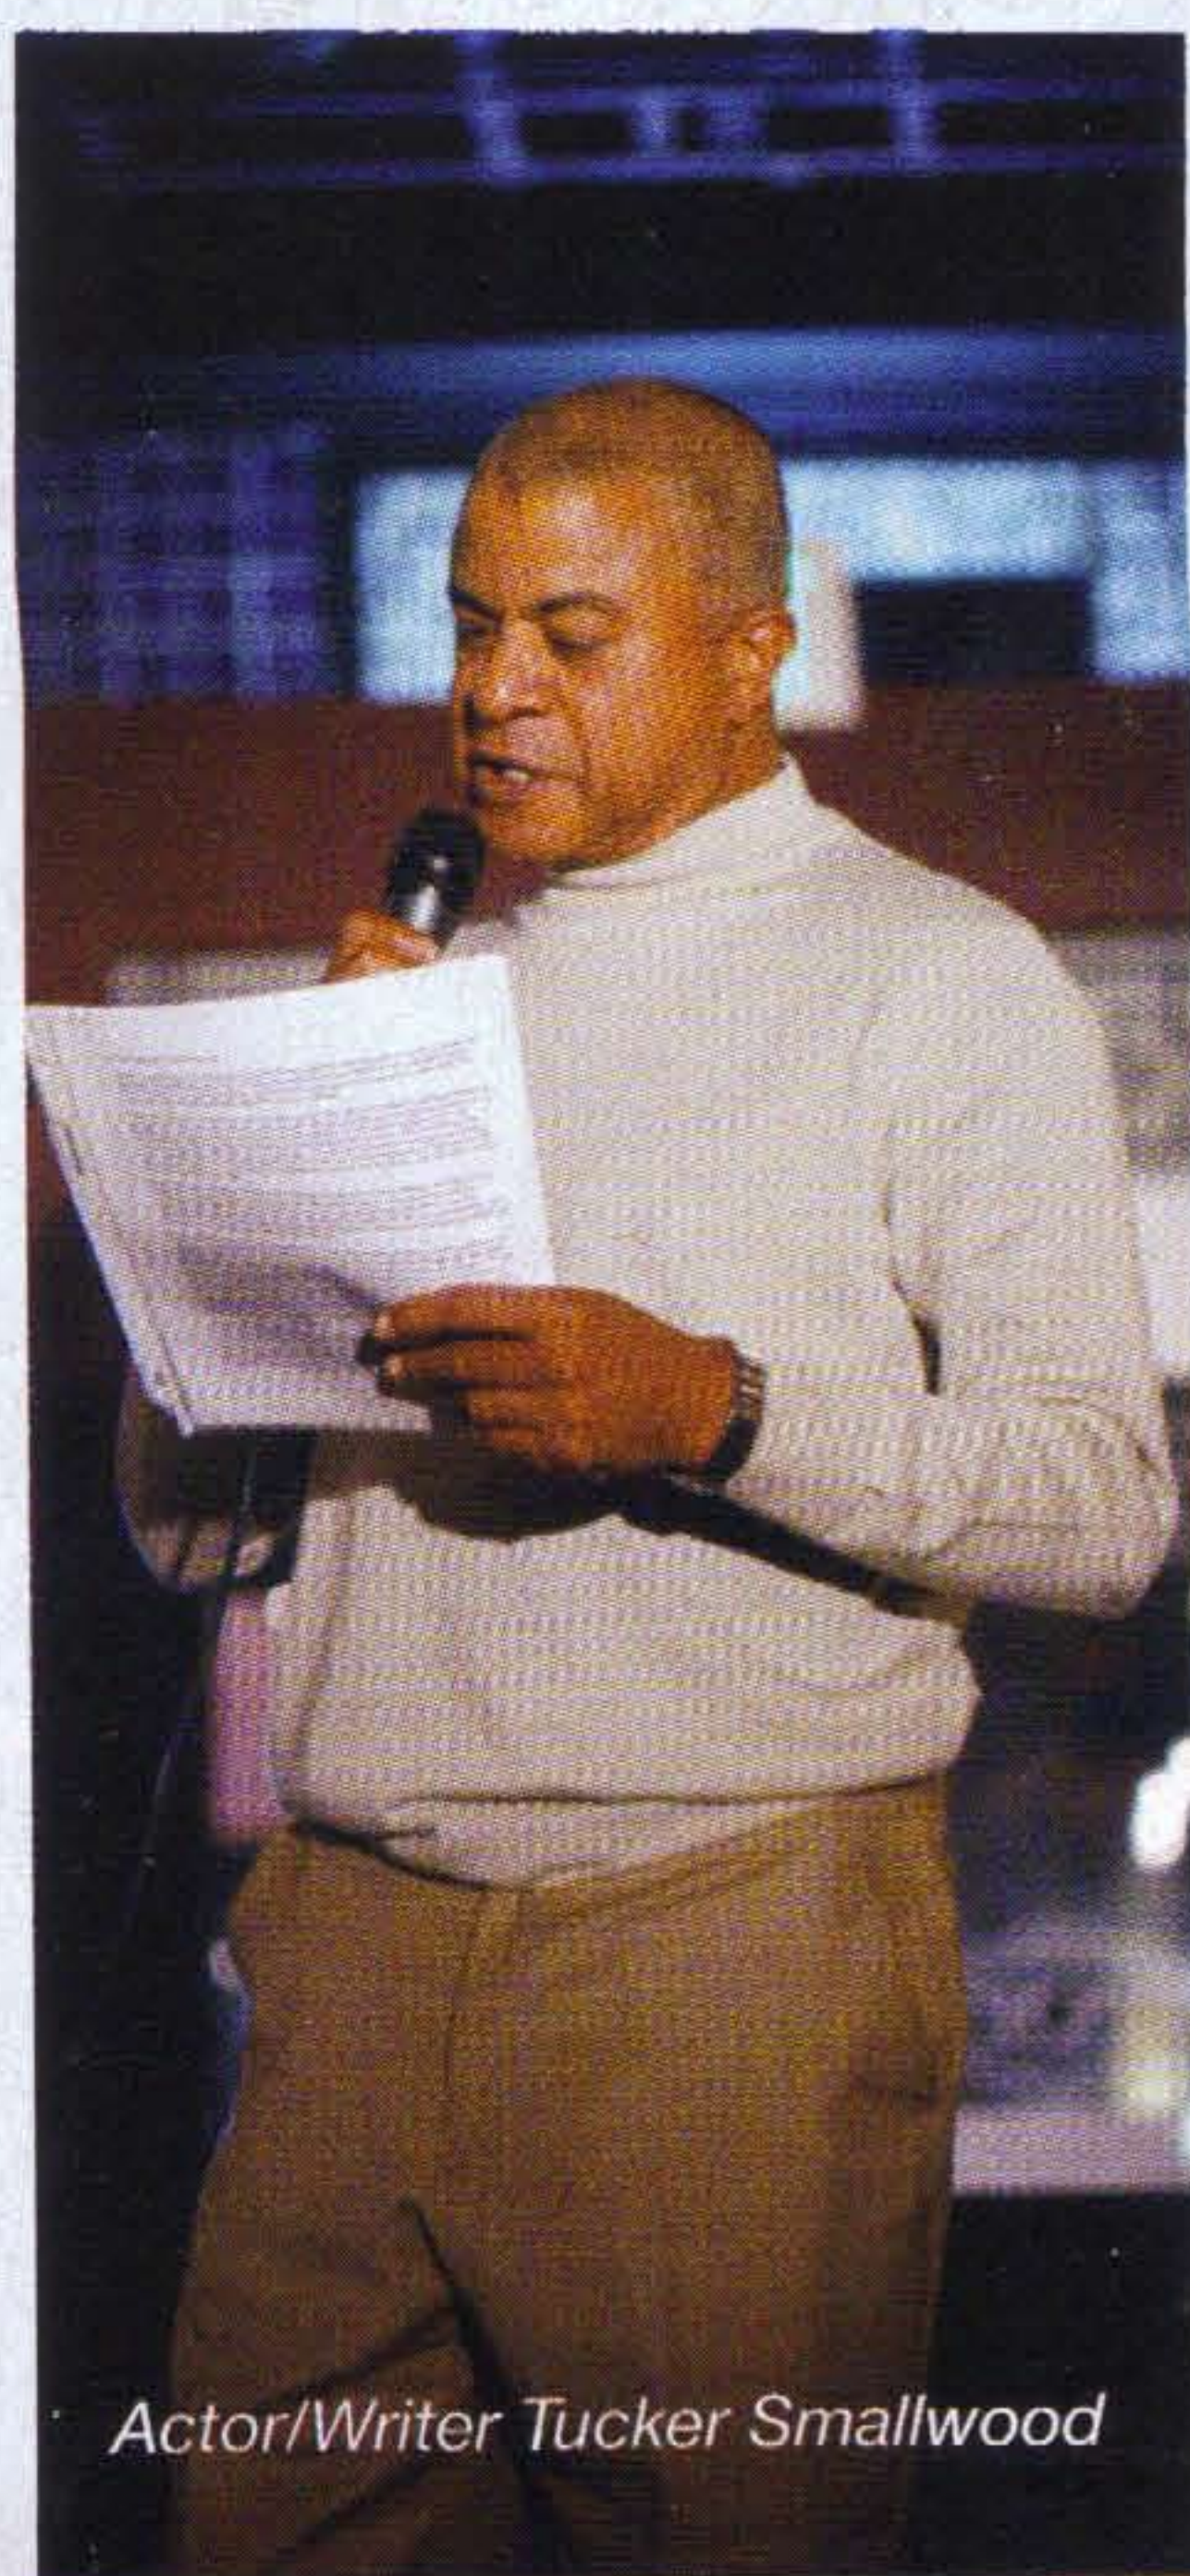

The Indelible Ink show runs from 6:30 to 9:30pm on the last Tuesday of each month (except December). Indelible Ink is looking for volunteers and board members to help produce the show each month. For more information, visit www.IndelibleInk.net.

Indelible Ink Creator & Host Monica Lee Copeland

Dancer Jennifer Tehani Sarreal

Actor/Writer Tucker Smallwood

*Virtuoso Violinist Swil Kanim
Photography by Rhoel Paghunasan*